

Sepulveda, Arlington PTA Make 20 Units in Council

Torrance Council of Parent-Teacher Associations was increased from 18 to 20 units in November as busy 33rd district representatives, council officers, principals and interested parents of students in the Sepulveda and Arlington Elementary schools collaborated to organize parent-teacher associations for their schools.

SEPULVEDA
Sepulveda School organized a parent-teacher association Nov. 15, 1956, with a charter membership of 197.

Scoutmaster Holden gave the inspirational and Principal Robert Dexter led the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The meeting was called to order and presided over by temporary chairman Mrs. James Craig; serving as secretary was Mrs. A. Raines. Assisting in the formation of this new association was Mrs. Albin Larson, extension chairman, Southern section of 33rd District PTA, and Council of Torrance PTA Extension Chairman Mrs. Evar Jansson.

The officers elected to serve the year 1956-57 as Sepulveda Parent-Teacher representatives were: president, Mrs. Albert Yackie; first vice president, Mrs. Paul Halbach; second vice president, Principal Robert Dexter; third vice president, Mrs. John Yanta; recording secretary, Mrs. Allen Hossman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Albert Craig; treasurer, Mrs. Lee Speaks; auditor, Wilbur Hawkins; and historian, John Yanta. Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

ARLINGTON
Arlington School auditorium buzzed with activity as parents in the area gathered Nov. 28 to an organization meeting of parent-teacher.

Chairman Mrs. Hervey Blue opened the meeting introducing Mrs. Albin Larson, extension chairman, Southern section of 33rd District PTA, who assisted with the election of officers. Mrs. Ralph Eystone was acting secretary. Mrs. Harry Goodgold read the call that had been sent to all parents informing them of the impending meeting. The charter closed with 170 members. Membership, however, is still open.

Torrance Council PTA president, Mrs. Francis Stoekle, introduced council officers present which included Vice Presidents Mrs. Eldon Morgan and Mrs. J. R. Allison; magazine and publication chairman, Mrs. C. F. Malone; third vice president, Mrs. Kenneth McVey; extension chairman, Mrs. Evar Jansson; and Mrs. J. R. Sanders, president of North High School PTA. Hospitality Chairman Mrs. Dane Walker presented each with corsages in the traditional PTA colors, blue and gold.

Mrs. Lloyd VanDeVort, chairman of the by-laws committee, presented the by-laws which were accepted. Association meetings will be the second Thursday of the month.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Seaside

Seaside PTA held its regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Warren Boggs, president.

Mrs. Harry Young, citizenship chairman, introduced Girl Scout Troop 469 who presented the Colors.

Mrs. Joel Stanley, spiritual chairman, introduced Mrs. Michael Medved and Mrs. Herman, who presented a musical number.

Lloyd Jones, principal, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Magg, gave vocal selections.

Mr. Jones introduced Lloyd Reist, new vice principal for Seaside School.

A short business meeting was held, with Mrs. Goggs announcing that the school children will bring white gifts at Christmas time to place under the school Christmas tree. It is the usual custom of the school to bring canned goods and toys for the needy.

Mrs. Boggs also announced that group pictures will be taken of the different school rooms. This will be one of the PTA's main money raising events of the year.

Mrs. Teddy Drake, first vice president, introduced Dr. E. V. Pullias, Dean of Pepperdine College, who spoke to the group on "Freedom of Expression."

Mrs. Boggs invited the parents to attend the Dec. 18 meeting.
